HYMN 366 Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, you pardon all who truly repent and turn to you. We humbly confess our sins and ask your mercy. We have not loved you with a pure heart, nor have we loved our neighbor as ourselves. We have not done justice, loved kindness, or walked humbly with you, our God. Have mercy on us, O God, in your loving-kindness. In your great compassion, cleanse us from our sin. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. (Silent Confession)

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.

HYMN 353 My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Heidelberg Catechism

What is your only comfort in life and in death?

That I am not my own, but belong-body and soul, in life and in death-to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less 353

This hymn develops the imagery of Jesus' remark (Matthew 7:24-27 / Luke 6:47-49) that those who believe in him and act on that belief are like someone who builds a house on a rock. The text is set to a tune created for it by a prolific 19th-century American composer and editor.

This text, originally appearing in four stanzas, was written by the first Native American Dakota to be ordained to the Presbyterian ministry and was published in the Dakota hymnal he edited. Both the Dakota and English versions have been associated with this shape note tune.

Gluten Free Communion Crackers will be available for communions beginning next week, August 7. They will be individually wrapped and placed at the usher stations. Please feel free to take one and use during communion.

The sign-up sheet for the Men's Gathering is in the back of the Sanctuaries. Men, confirmation age and above, are encouraged to gather for an evening of fellowship and refreshments at the Jamison Farms on Thursday, August 18. The evening begins at 6:00 pm.

The Deacons' recent Red Cross Blood Drive collected 30 units of blood. Ninety lives will be saved due to the generosity of the donors. Thanks go out to members of our church family who donated the gift of life and to our volunteers (Bobbi Jo Pevarnik, Sandy Wano, Linda Tito and Susan Mough) who gave their time for this very important community event.

If you have a prayer request you wish to bring before the congregation please complete the blue prayer card found in the pew rack, drop it into the collection plate and the ushers will see that Pastor Derek gets it to be included in the prayer time during worship.
