CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 105)

Nancy McKinnon, Lector

Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name. Make known among the nations what God has done.

Sing to him, sing praise to him! Tell of all his wonderful acts!

Glory in his holy name. Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

Look to the Lord and to his strength. Seek his face always.

Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles and the judgements he pronounced.

God remembers his covenant forever, the promise he made for a thousand generations.

For he remembered his holy promise given to his servant Abraham.

He brought out his people with rejoicing, his chosen one with shouts of joy!

*HYMN 611 Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, in whom we live and move and have our being, whose face is hidden from us by our sins, and whose mercy we forget in the blindness of our hearts: Cleanse us from all our offenses, and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires, that with reverent and humble hearts we may draw near to you, confessing our faults, confiding in your grace, and finding in you our refuge and our strength; through Jesus Christ your Son.
(Silent Confession)

611 Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

1 Joy - ful, joy - ful, we a - dore thee, God of glo - ry, Lord of love!
 2 All thy works with joy sur-round thee; earth and heaven re-lect thy rays;
 3 Mor-tals, join the hap-py cho-rus which the morn-ing stars be-gan.

Hearts un-fold like flowers be-fore thee, o-pening to the sun a-bove.
 stars and an-gels sing a-round thee, cen-ter of un-bro-ken praise.
 Love di-vine is reign-ing o'er us, join-ing all in heav-en's plan.

Melt the clouds of sin and sad-ness; drive the dark of doubt a-way.
 Field and for-est, vale and moun-tain, flower-y mead-ow, flash-ing sea,
 Ev-er sing-ing, march we on-ward, vic-tors in the midst of strife.

Giv-er of im-mor-tal glad-ness, fill us with the light of day.
 chant-ing bird and flow-ing foun-tain, call us to re-joice in thee.
 Joy-ful mu-sic leads us sun-ward in the tri-umph song of life.

This well-known melody was created to provide a choral setting for J. C. F. von Schiller's poem, "An die Freude" (To Joy), as the final movement of the composer's Ninth Symphony. The author, a prominent Presbyterian pastor and author, wrote the words with this tune in mind.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

*HYMN 687 Our God, Our Help in Ages Past

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose

The Church's One Foundation 321

1 The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord.
 2 E - lect from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth,
 3 Though with a scorn-ful won-der this world sees her op-pressed,
 4 Mid toil and trib - u - la - tion, and tu - mult of her war,
 5 Yet she on earth has un - ion with God, the Three in One,

She is his new cre - a - tion by wa - ter and the word.
 her char - ter of sal - va - tion: one Lord, one faith, one birth.
 by schis - ms rent a - sun - der, by her - e - sies dis - tressed, she waits the con - sum - ma - tion of peace for - ev - er - more:
 and mys - tic sweet com - mu - nion with those whose rest is won:

From heaven he came and sought her to be his ho - ly bride.
 One ho - ly name she bless - es, par - takes one ho - ly food, yet saints their watch are keep - ing; their cry goes up: "How long?"
 till with the vi - sion glo - rious her long - ing eyes are blest, O hap - py ones and ho - ly! Lord, give us grace that we,

With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.
 and to one hope she press - es, with ev - ery grace en - dued.
 And soon the night of weep - ing shall be the morn of song.
 and the great church vic - to - rious shall be the church at rest.
 like them, the meek and low - ly, may live e - ter - nal - ly.

This hymn was one of twelve written by an English curate to affirm the articles of the Apostles' Creed with biblical allusions such as 1 Corinthians 3:11 here. Though not created for this text, the tune was joined to it in 1868, and the two have been inseparable ever since.

 ends the night be - fore the ris - ing sun.

5 Time, like an ever rolling stream,
 bears all our years away;
 they fly forgotten, as a dream
 dies at the opening day.

6 Our God, our help in ages past,
 our hope for years to come,
 be thou our guard while life shall last,
 and our eternal home.

Many people sing this hymn unaware that it paraphrases Psalm 90, partly because this text speaks so immediately to the human condition. Since the middle of the 19th century, it has usually been joined to this tune named for the London parish where the composer was organist.

again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

.....and so with the confidence of the children of God, let us pray.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

In a pairing that began in 1561, this paraphrase of Psalm 100 by a Scot is set to a tune that a French composer originally created for Psalm 134 in the Genevan Psalter of 1551. They have appeared together in nearly every comprehensive English-language hymnal since then.

This hymn was generated by 19th-century centennial celebrations: the words by the Declaration of Independence and the music by the adoption of the United States Constitution. Despite these origins, no specific nation is mentioned in this hymn of praise and prayer for peace.

We welcome Terry Greene, Bagpiper, this morning and members of the Laurel Highlanders Pipes and Drums, Jeff Delisa, Derek Donaldson, Todd Funk, Terry Greene, Jim King, N. J. King, Ruth Melli and Chris Welch. The presence of the Pipers has been underwritten by Mary Lou Townsend in loving memory of Jack B. Townsend.

Pastor Derek and his family will be on vacation from July 8 through July 21. If you need pastoral care please contact the Church Office.

If you wish to help with the Pine Spring Day Camp Latrobe, August 5 through 9, make your choice from the following areas and call the office to register:
registration, nurse, photographer, pick-up, lunch helpers, floaters, crafts helpers, and pre-camp set-up. Also, all volunteers will need current (within the past 5 years) Pennsylvania Criminal Clearance and Child Abuse Clearance checks.
Directions to obtain clearances will be provided to you. In addition, Cindy Soltys will meet with anyone wanting help after the Main Street service July 14. Criminal checks can be obtained quickly, Child Abuse Clearances may take up to 2 weeks, so it is important that the process is completed no later than July 19.

Surrounding churches are participating in Rise and Shine Breakfast, a free weekly breakfast for children and adults, each Wednesday this summer. The breakfasts are held at Trinity Lutheran Church on Weldon Street. Our church prepared our first breakfast this past Wednesday and our future dates are July 24 and August 21. We need additional helpers. Preparation begins at 7:15 and clean up ends around 10:30 or earlier. We can use people to bake coffee cakes, breads or muffins, and meal items ahead of time (all costs are being reimbursed by a grant), people with their current clearances will serve breakfast, and people to help prepare or clean up the morning of the breakfast. Please contact Cindy Soltys via text or phone call at 724.875.5474 if you are able to assist us.

Latrobe Presbyterian Church is now able to accept monetary gifts online. This simple and safe method of giving provides our members and guests the ability to contribute to the mission of LPC from near or far. Using your smart phone, open your camera, and hold the camera over the black and white image shown here. (Do not take a picture; just hover.) Within a few seconds, a yellow link that reads “myvanco.com” will appear. Tap the link and you will be taken to the Vanco website for LPC. Follow the prompts to make your one-time or recurring contribution.
