HYMN 65 Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Welsh

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Lord our God, you call us to work for a world where all will be fed and have dignity, but we find ourselves distracted by our own desires. You call us to seek justice and peace, but we are satisfied with injustice and discord. You call us to bring liberty to the oppressed, but we do not insist on freedom for all. Forgive us, O Lord. Turn us to your will by the power of your Spirit, so that all may know your justice and peace; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Savior. (Silent Confession)

Few Welsh hymns are as well known or loved as this 18th-century text that did not gain its popular tune until the early 20th century. In both its original text and in English translation, it is a stirring hymn of pilgrimage filled with vivid imagery from Hebrew Scripture.

O Redeemer divine, our sole hope of salvation, eternal light of the earth and the sky, we kneel in adoration. O Savior, turn on us thy loving eye, O Savior, turn on us thy loving eye! Send down on us the fire of thy grace all consuming, whose wondrous might, whose wondrous might dispersed the powers of hell, and rouse our slumbering souls with thy radiance, that they may waken thy mercy to tell, that they may waken thy mercy to tell! O Christ, bestow thy blessing on us, we implore thee, who here are gathered on penitent knee. Accept the hymns we chant to thine eternal glory and these thy gifts we return unto thee.
