PRELUDE

SENTENCES OF SCRIPTURE

Lector, Nancy McKinnon

PRAYER FOR THE DAY

.....one God, forever and ever. Amen.

*HYMN 326 For All the Saints

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, in every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.

(Silent Confession)

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*GLORY TO THE FATHER – HYMNAL 581

*THE PEACE

The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you. (Greet one another with the words, "Peace be with you.")

CHILDREN'S TIME

For All the Saints

1 For all the saints who from their labors rest, who
 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
 3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
 5 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through thee by faith before the world confessed, thy thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;

 We feebly struggle; they in glory shine; yet steals on the ear the distant triumph song, and gates of pearl streams in the countless host,

name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
 thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
 all are one in thee, for all are thine.
 hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
 singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

HYMN 177 I Will Come to You

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he arose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Presuming to speak in the voice of God, as this song does, can only be done with integrity if the singers understand their words as an expression of what they believe about God's nature and God's intentions. It is an occasion for affirming faith, not for wishful thinking.

She is not sent away, but only sent before, she is not sent away, but only sent before, like unto a star, a star, like unto a star, which going out of your sight, which, going out of your sight, doth not die, doth not die, doth not die and vanish, but shineth, but shineth, but shineth, but shineth in another hemisphere: ye see her not, ye see her not, ye see her not, yet she doth shine, yet she doth shine, yet she doth shine, doth shine, doth shine.

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22-23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.
