SENTENCE OF SCRIPTURE — Dana Flowers, Lector

PRAYER FOR THE DAY

....one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

HYMN 326 For All the Saints

*CORPORATE PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, in every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.

GLORY TO THE FATHER – HYMNAL 581

326 For All the Saints

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

All families carrying candles, please gather at the back of the Sanctuary during the Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

REMEMBERING OUR SAINTS

OFFERING
OFFERTORY There Is a Higher Throne — Lloyd Larson
Chancel Choir, Mary Amrhein-May, cello and Charles May, violin

There is a higher throne than all this world has known, where faithful ones from every tongue will one day come. Before the Son we'll stand, made faultless through the Lamb. Believing hearts find promised grace; salvation comes. Hear heaven's voices sing! Their thunderous anthem rings through emerald courts and sapphire skies; their praises rise. All glory, wisdom, power, strength, thanks and honor are to God, our King, who reigns on high, on high forevermore. And there we'll find our home; our life before the throne. We'll honor him in perfect song where we belong. He'll wipe each tear stained eye as thirst and hunger die. The Lamb becomes our Shepherd King; we'll reign with him.

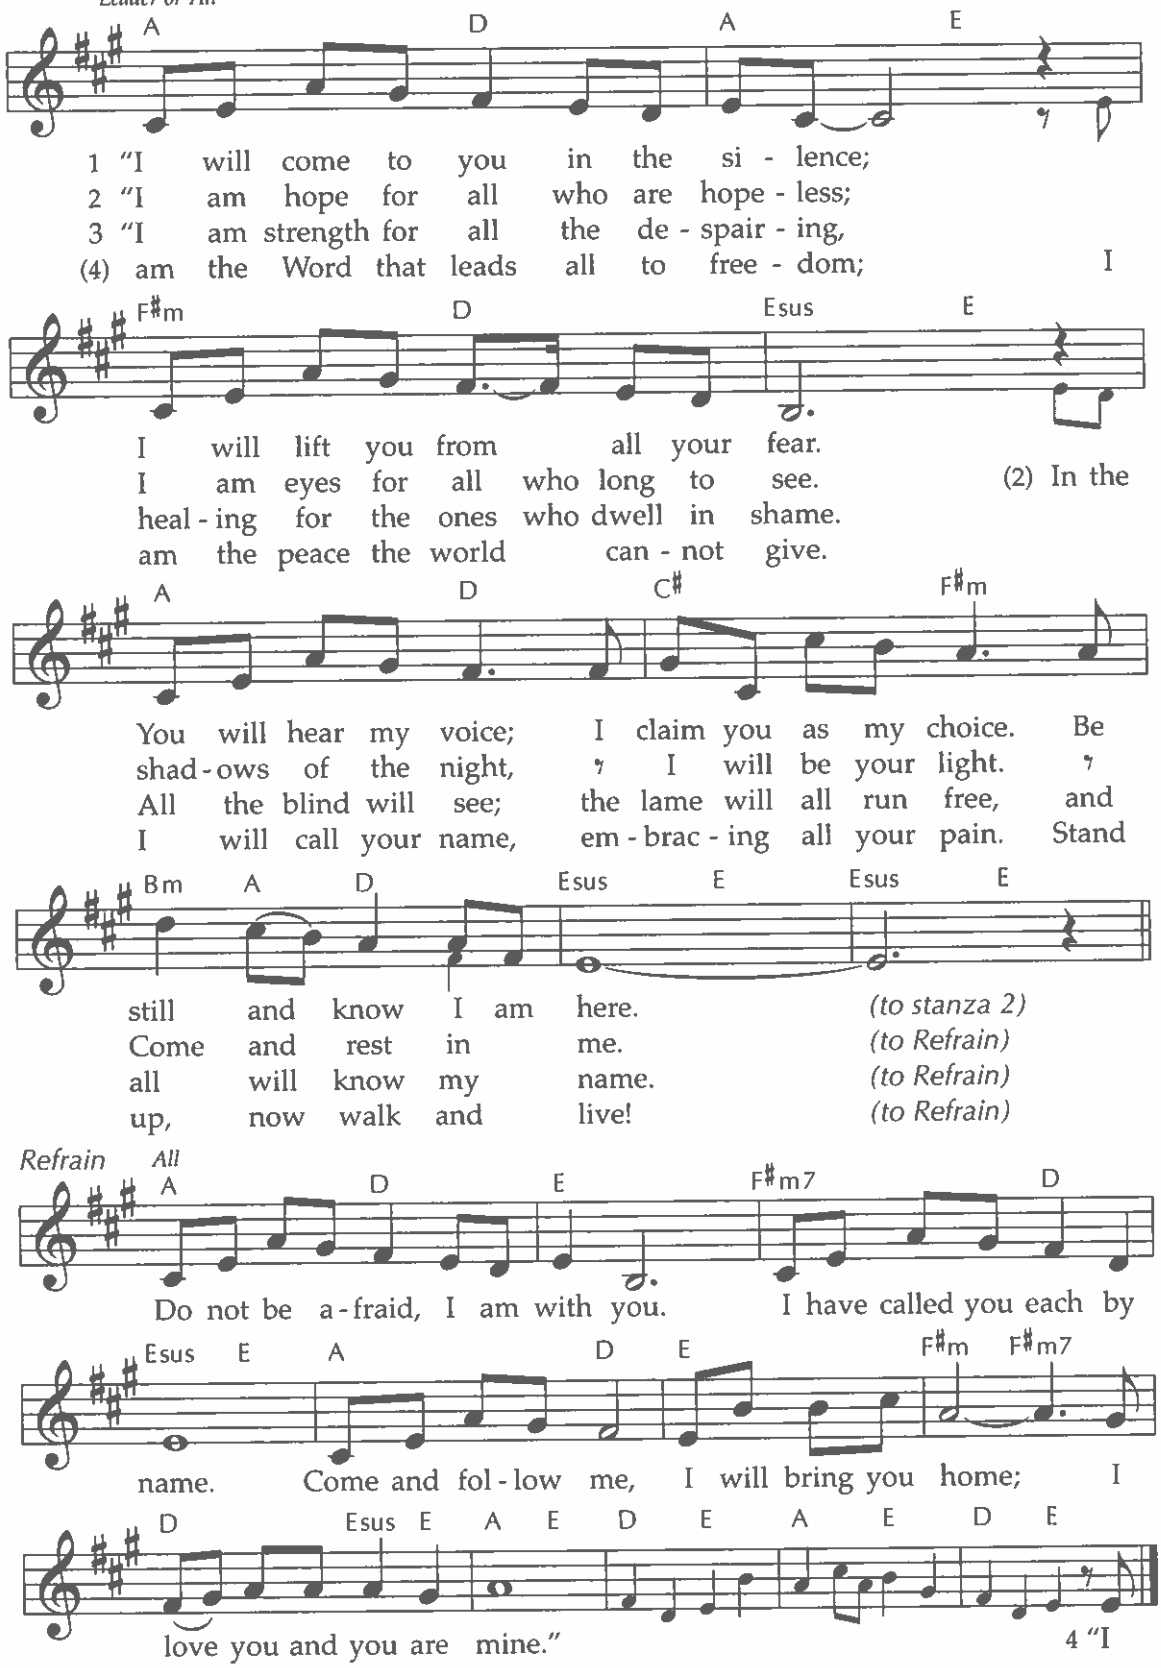
Leader or All



Presuming to speak in the voice of God, as this song does, can only be done with integrity if the singers understand their words as an expression of what they believe about God's nature and God's intentions. It is an occasion for affirming faith, not for wishful thinking.

731 Give Thanks for Those Whose Faith Is Firm

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

The first three stanzas of this text are organized around the three great virtues—faith, hope, and love—mentioned in 1 Corinthians 13:13. These have indeed been the marks of the faithful people of God always and everywhere, and the final stanza sums up our gratitude for them.
