PROCESSIONAL HYMN 232 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

232 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

It seems likely that this beloved Easter text began in Latin and moved through German before reaching English, where it combined with the present tune in the emerging English evangelical style, a reaction to the restrained one-note-per-syllable psalmody that preceded it.

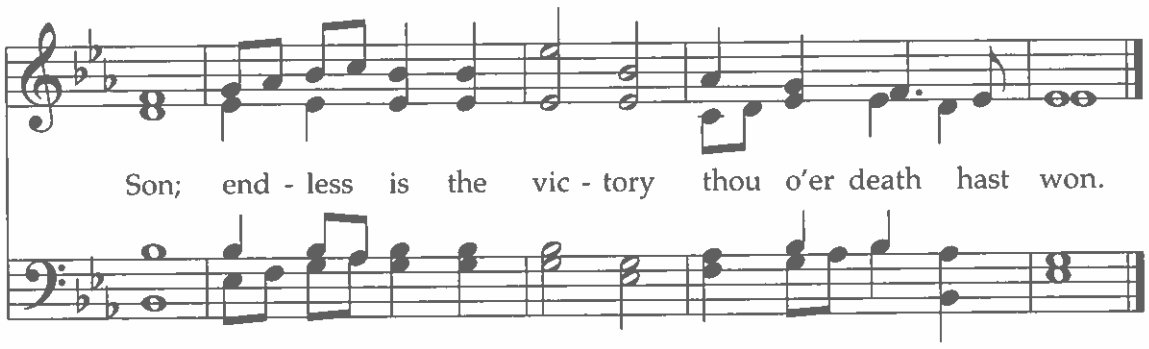
RESPONSE TO THE WORD



Good Christians All, Rejoice and Sing! 239

This 20th-century Easter text is both a song of encouragement (stanzas 1–3 directed to the congregation) and a song of praise (stanza 4 addressed to the risen Christ), all ending with joyous alleluias. It was written specifically for the dancelike 17th-century tune found here.

HYMNAL 239 Good Christians All, Rejoice and Sing!

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH - based on 1 Corinthians 15

This is the good news which we have received and upon which we have taken our stand. By this gospel we are saved if we hold to it firmly. We believe that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures. He was buried. We believe that he was raised again on the third day in accordance with the scriptures. After that he appeared first to the women, then to the twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. Today, he appears to us so that we might believe and proclaim the good news to the world that Christ is risen.

This text and tune were created together in the context of an ecumenical, charismatic, missionary Christian community in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Their energy and emphasis center in the opening and closing refrain's "Alleluia"—the essential Easter word of proclamation.

LATROBE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

Latrobe Presbyterian Church exists to love Christ and welcome all into relationship with God and one another. Grounded in our rich heritage and historical roots in this place, we come together in liturgical music and worship to gather as the family of God, be shaped by the word of God, respond to the call of God, and be sent to shine the light of God to all people in our neighborhood and throughout the world. By grace we extend forgiveness, seek the hurting, and reflect God's compassionate care.
