PRAYER FOR THE DAY

…one God, now and forever. Amen.

HYMN 393 O Day of Rest and Gladness

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most holy God, to turn toward you is to rise; to turn away from you is to fall; and to stand before you is to abide forever. We gather in worship to lift our hearts in gratitude for the blessings you bestow, and also to ask forgiveness for our sins. Forgive us when we do not love others as you love us; when we ignore the cries of those in need; when we lack the courage to stand for justice in this broken and fearful world. In your great mercy forgive our sins and free us from selfishness. Help us to walk in true paths of discipleship; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Savior.

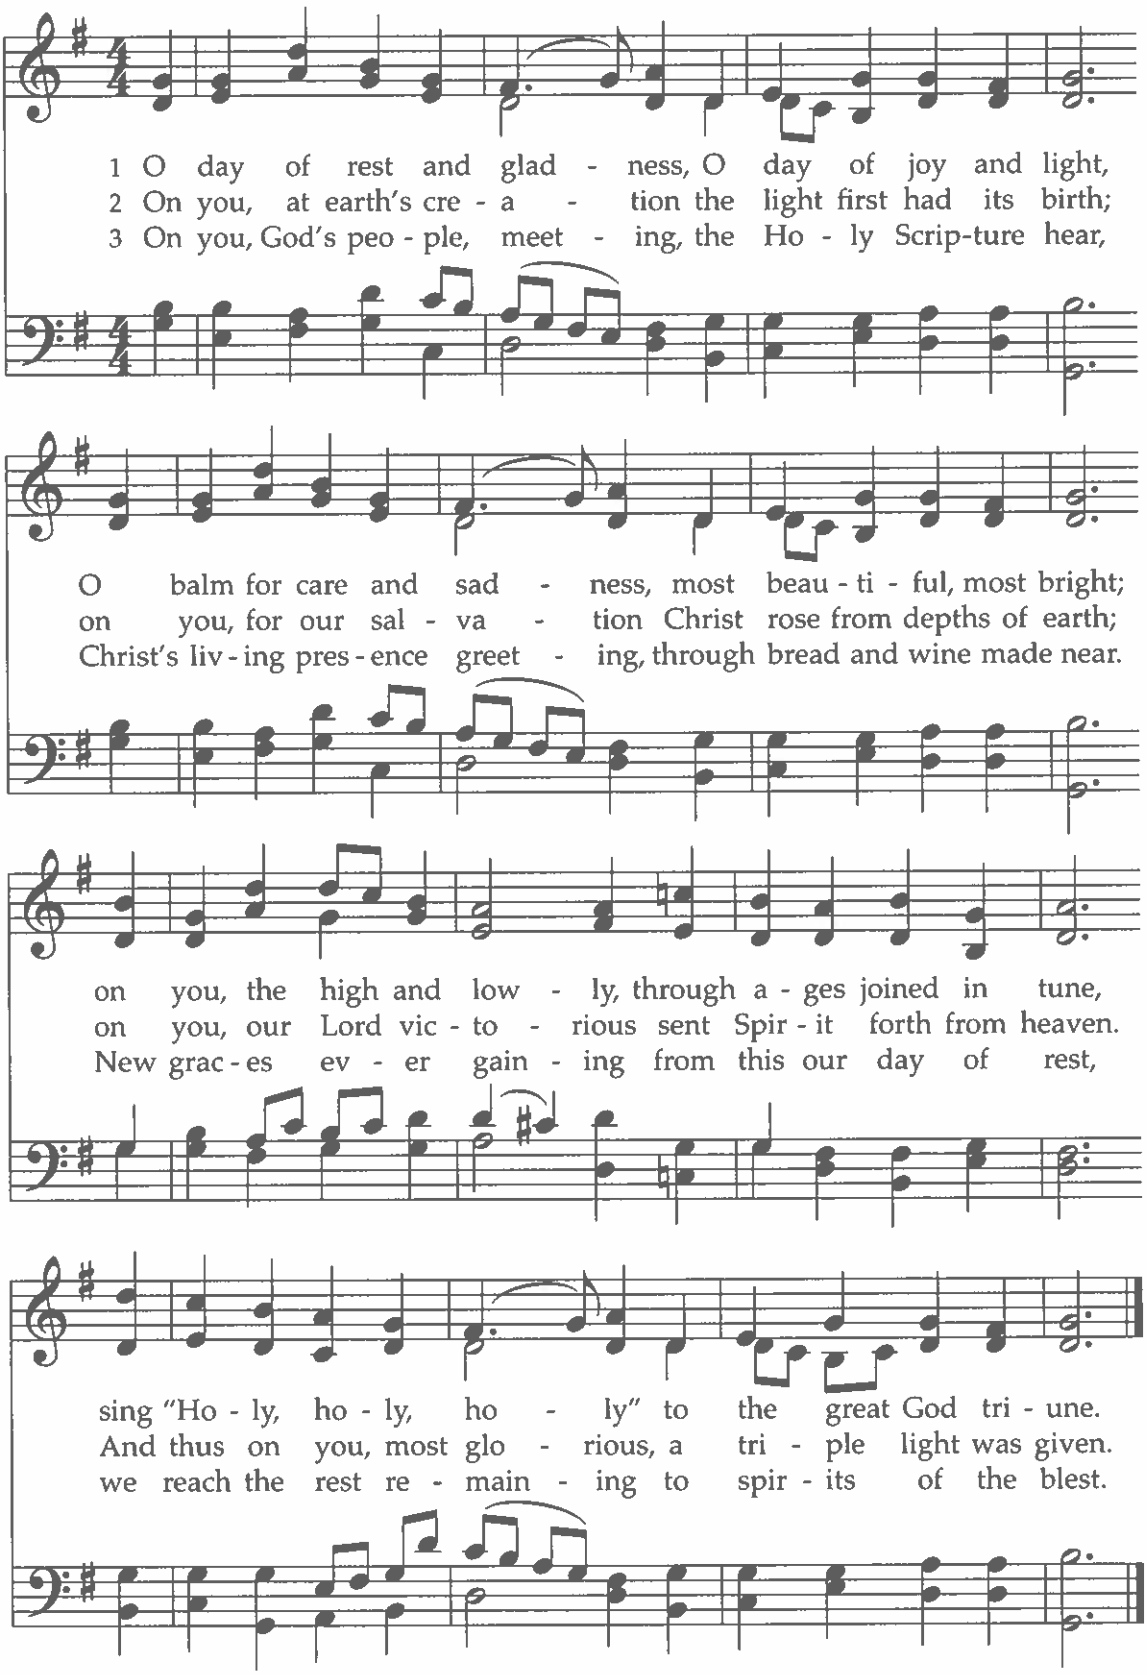
393 O Day of Rest and Gladness



In this text the first day of the week represents a threefold commemoration of Creation, Resurrection, and Pentecost—each an encounter with Trinitarian activity centered on one of the Three Persons. The tune name recalls the secular German song adapted for use with several hymns.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

HYMN 182 I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

182 I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

Each stanza here pairs an invitation from Jesus with a response from the narrator. These three invitations recall how Jesus welcomed those who were heavy laden (Matthew 11:28), offered living water (John 4:10–14), and identified himself as the light of the world (John 8:12, 9:5).

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

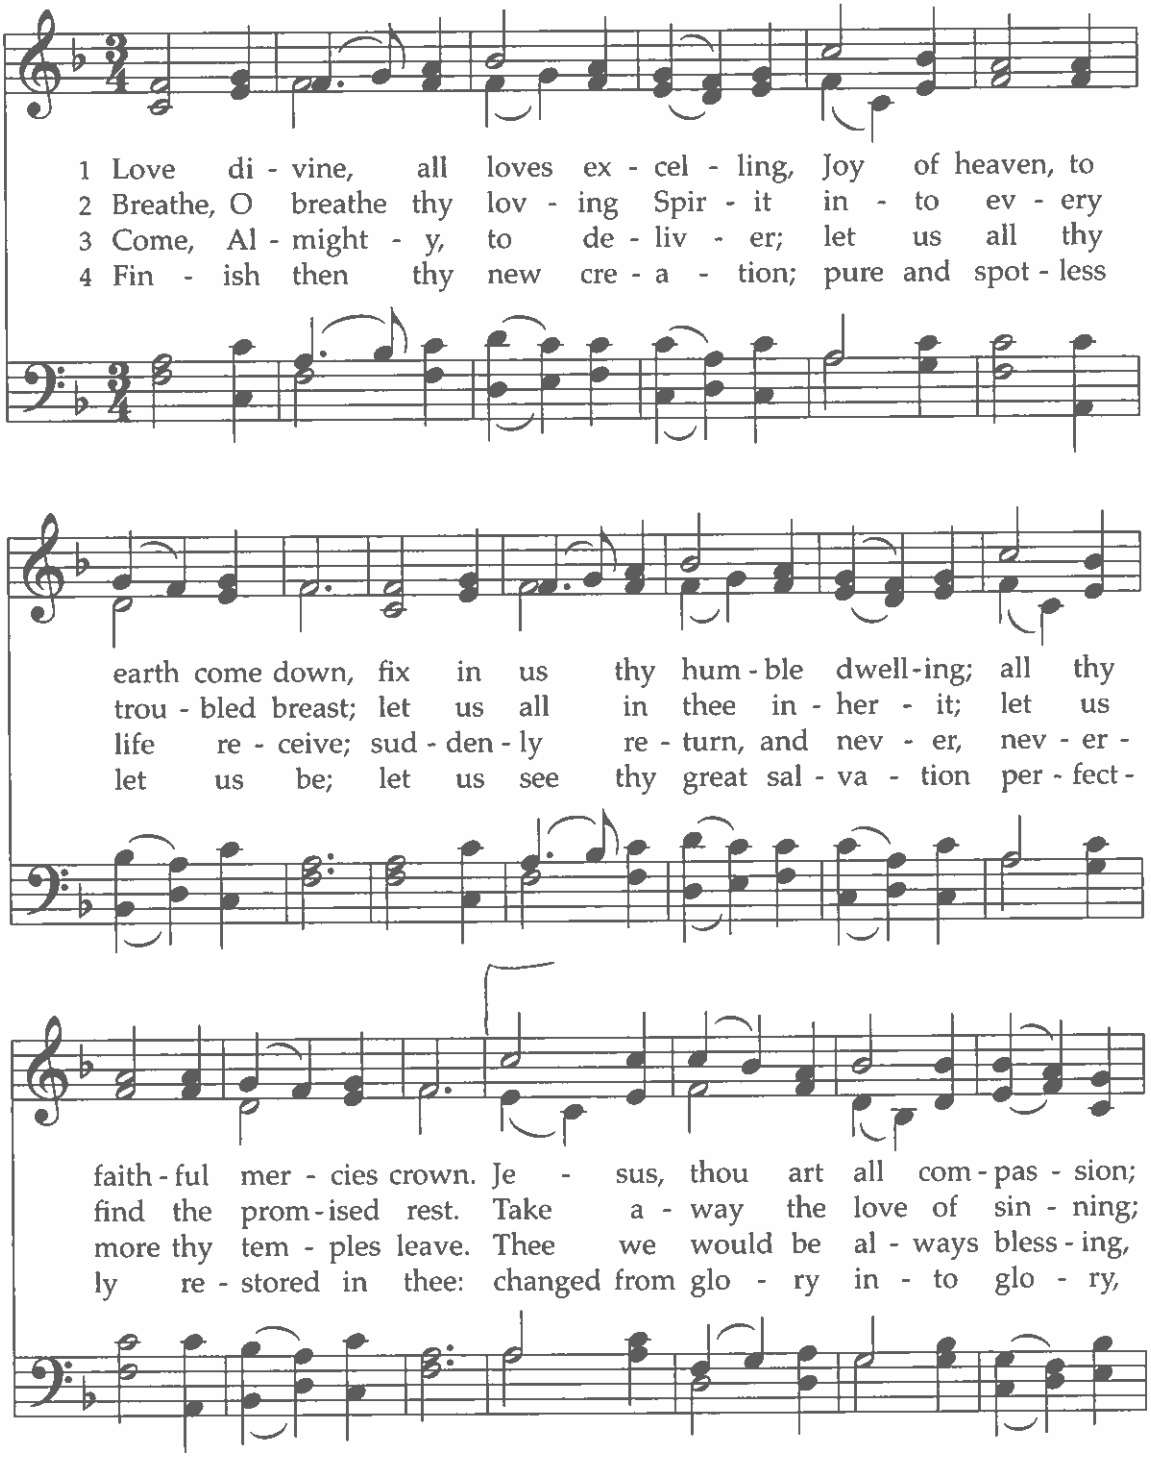
366 Love Divine, All Loves Excelling



This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.
